

Upper Sondley - This area consists of a high value single-family residential subdivision, located at the northern end of the Haw Creek valley in East Asheville. This is a developing area with good infrastructure already in place. Annexation would bring in this pocket of development located between the existing corporate limits and the Blue Ridge Parkway.
